

Strengthening the Involvement of People with Dementia

A Resource for Implementation

CSIP Older Peoples Mental Health programme (2007)

This toolkit contains advice and examples of positive practice which can facilitate the active and meaningful involvement of people who have dementia in the planning, delivery and evaluation of health, social care and other support services.